From Saturday February 7. to Tuesday February 10. 1712.

St. James's, February 3.

THE following Addreſs being tranſmitted from Ireland by their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices of that Kingdom, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Dartmouth, One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

The humble Addreſs of the Recorder, Senior Aldermen, Burgeſſes, Freemen, and other Loyal Inhabitants of the Town and Corporation of Youghall, in the Kingdom of Ireland.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Venice, January 27. N. S. The Magiſtrates of Health take great Care to hinder all Commerce with the Countries that are ſuppoſed to be infected with contagious Diſtempers. We have had ſeveral violent Storms here of late, by which eight ſmall Veſſels have been caſt away, and the Men all drowned. They write from Rome, that the Pope was ſo well recovered of his late Indiſpoſition, that he went to officiate at St. Peter's Church on the Feſtival of the Chair of that Saint. It is ſaid he will hold a Conſiſtory very ſoon, in order to name the Cardinals in Petto. Great numbers of People die in that City, of an Epidemical Diſeaſe which the Phyſicians aſcribe chiefly to the Inconſtancy of the Weather. The Marquis de Prie, Ambaſſador from his Imperial Majeſty, hath had an Audience of the Pope, who afterwards gave one to his own Miniſters. Letters from Naples bring an Account, that the Viceroy had laid great Duties upon ſeveral Commodities that till then had been free from any Impoſitions, and was likewiſe uſing all other means to raiſe Money, purſuant to Inſtructions he had received to that purpoſe from the Court of Vienna. Upon notice of ſome Tumults lately raiſed in Sardinia, it hath been reſolved to ſend a Body of Troops from Naples into that Iſland.

Vienna, January 28. N. S. Frequent Councils are held at Court upon the Affairs of Turky, the North and Flanders. The Abbot of Kempten, by two Deputies, hath received the Inveſtiture of his Imperial Majeſty, of the Fiefs and Dignities which he poſſeſſes in the Empire, and at the ſame time he was declared Preſident of the Aulick Council. On the fifteenth the Archbiſhop of Prague, Chancellor of that Univerſity, and Primate of Bohemia, took the Oath of Allegiance for thoſe Imployments. Count Charles of Waldſtein, Counſellor of State, and Knight of the Golden Fleece, died ſome Days ago: He had been formerly Great Chamberlain to the Emperor Joſeph. Tho' we have as yet had no reaſon to apprehend any Infectious Diſtemper here, the Court hath appointed three Days of Faſting and Prayer to be ſtrictly obſerved by all Perſons whatever, for averting the Plague from this Country. Count Welzeck, Envoy-Extraordinary from his Imperial Majeſty to the Czar, is arrived here, and hath given the Emperor an Account of the Succeſs of his Negotiations. We hear from Paſſau, that Count Raymond Ferdinand de Rabbata is elected Biſhop of that Plate, in the room of Cardinal Lamberg, lately deceaſed. They write from Temiſwar, that the King of Sweden is upon his March to enter Poland; which is confirmed by Letters from Tranſilvania, with this Addition, that the Army he leads conſiſts of Sixty thouſand Men.

Copenhagen, January 28. N. S. Admiral Guldenlieu hath received Orders from the King of Denmark to ſend a Squadron of Ships towards Norway, as ſoon as they can be got ready, as well to convoy the Forces which his Majeſty expects from that Kingdom, as alſo to prevent a Tranſportation, which it is ſuppoſed the Swedes intend to make from Gottenburg to Jutland. The Commandant of this Town hath ſent a Lieutenant of Artillery to Korſer, a ſmall Fortify'd Place at the extremity of our Iſland, towards the Paſſage of the great Belt from Funin. All the Families in this City are ordered to lay in a Stock of Proviſions for a conſiderable time, upon pain of being ſeverely puniſhed. The Seamen have lately aſſembled here in great Numbers, demanding their Arrears in a very diſorderly and inſolent manner, but they have ſince received three Months Pay, which hath quieted them for the preſent. We are inform'd by Letters which came in this Morning from Fredericia, that the King was gone from thence to Rendesburg, where he was to have an Interview with the Czar. The ſame Letters bring an Account, that the Swediſh Army was encamped between Huſum and Frederickſtadt; that they had recalled all their Parties, and were preparing to ſtrengthen their Camp in caſe of an Attack. The Confederate Forces were about three Leagues diſtant from them, and the Czar was deſirous to have his Head Quarters at Sleſwick, which the Court of Gottorp was reſolved to hinder if poſſible.

Dreſden, January 31. N. S. The King our Elector is expected here within three Weeks from Poland. It is ſaid he intends to raiſe ſome new Regiments as ſoon as he is returned. Letters from Warſaw bring an Account, that on the 14th there had been a very warm Debate in the Senate, upon the Sentence that is to be given againſt King Staniſlaus, and his Adherents. The Chamber of the Nuntii or Deputies, ſat upon that Matter till paſt twelve of the Clock at Night, and then they join'd the Senate, where it was agreed by both Houſes to grant the Malecontents ſix Months longer to come in, and ſubmit to the Government; but that all Hopes of any further delay ſhould be cut off by pronouncing Judgment againſt them at the expiration of the ſix Months. On the 15th the Diet was adjourn'd for a Fortnight, and it is thought they will not ſit long after their next Meeting, nor come to any Reſolutions of Conſequence. The King hath nam'd Commiſſioners who are to endeavour to make up the Differences that have been for ſome time between the Clergy of Poland, and the Generals of the Army, upon account of Contributions which Church-Lands have of late been made liable to. Commiſſioners are alſo appointed to examine into the Great Treaſurer's Accounts. The Court hath received a Confirmation of the News they had before, That the Grand Signior hath declared War againſt the Czar, for which he is making great Preparations, and hath ſent a Circular Order to all the Vizirs, Bachas, and Officers of the Ottoman Empire, to be ready to march with the Troops under their Command, and to aſſemble at Adrianople on the 21ſt Day of next March.
